

"Truly there is someone for everyone...Love belongs to all of us."

- Katherine Woodward Thomas, author of Calling in 'The One'.

Getting Ready for a Loving Relationship Weekend Immersion

Friday, April 21 to Sunday, April 23, 2017

Follow-up Meeting, Tuesday, May 2nd, 7-9 pm

Location: Church on the Hill Annex, 55 Main Street, Lenox

For: women of all ages, single, divorced or widowed, who are longing to create a deeply loving and compassionate relationship and want support to move forward towards that goal.

This Magical Weekend begins Friday evening at 7 pm. There are three sessions on Saturday, and one on Sunday morning. Lenox Village offers an array of wonderful restaurants, and Lilac Park, next to our meeting place, is a beautiful place for picnics. The weekend features group discussion, journaling, imagery, gentle yoga and deeply nurturing restorative practices.

$235. Early registration $215. (by 4/17)

Topics Covered

- Deepen self-love and self-trust
- Become aware of obstacles you unknowingly create
- Learn from past hurts and disappointments and let go
- Identify your "must haves" for a fulfilling partnership
  - Internet dating: possibilities and pitfalls

Ani Nadler Grosser, LICSW. This is the third year Ani is offering this popular course. A Certified Imago therapist, Ani specializes in working with women and couples. In addition to her relationship expertise, Ani shares her own experience of attracting the love of her life and inspiration from her 30 year relationship with Bill. In 2014, they published their first book: Heart Tools For Couples: 8 Ways to a Loving Relationship.

For More Information, Visit:

compassionaterelationships.com